

Country Girls.

Mrs. Victoria Fuller, in the Ohio Cultivator, in a sisterly way, thus talks to country girls:

The farmers' daughters are soon to be the life as well as the pride of the country—a glorious race of women which no other land can show. I seek not to flatter them—for, before they can become this, they will have to make earnest efforts of one or two kinds. There are some who depreciate their condition, and some who have a false pride in it, because they demand more consideration than they merit. A want of intelligence upon all subjects and of refined education is no more in a country than a town-bred girl, in this age of books and newspapers. Many girls are discouraged because they cannot be sent away from home to boarding schools; but men of superior minds and knowledge of the world would rather have for wives women well and properly educated at home. And this education can be had wherever the desire is not wanting. A taste for reading does wonders, and an earnest thirst after knowledge is almost certain to attain a sweet draught of the "pious spring." There is a farmer's daughter in this very room in which I am writing, a beautiful, refined and intellectual woman, in whose girlhood books were not as plentiful as now, and who gained her fine education under circumstances which would have discouraged any one but one who had as true a love of study.

I will state why I think the country girls are yet to prove the hope of the country. The women of towns and cities are becoming so universally unhealthy, and so almost universally extravagant, foolish and fashionable, that men are almost in despair of obtaining wives who are invalids, and providing them with what they demand after they have married them.

Unless the young man has the fortune (good or bad) to be the inheritor of wealth, he must spend the best bloom of his youth to acquire enough to "start upon," as people are expected to begin now-days. Many, even in high places, would go to the country for their choices, if they met there equal refinement and intelligence. Women are preparing to take a noble stand in history, and they cannot do it in ignorance.

Town girls have the advantage of more highly polished manners and greater accomplishments; but country girls have infinitely more to recommend them as rivals of their fair city sisters. They have more truth, household knowledge and economy, health, and consequently beauty, simplicity, affection and freshness of impulse and thought. When they have cultivated minds there are more chances in their favor for good sense and real ability, because so much is not demanded by the frivolities of society. The added lustre of foreign accomplishments could easily be caught by such a mind from a very little contact with the music.

I would not speak as though our farmer's daughters were deficient in education. Many brilliant scholars and talented women may be found among them; in old Virginia this is especially so; but I would seek to awaken the ambition of all to become that admired and favored class which they ought to be, if they will but unite refined culture with their excellent graces.

A sweet country-house, with roses and honey-suckles trained to climb over it; with good taste, beauty and intelligence within; toil enough to insure health, and leisure to court acquaintances with books and flowers, and the loveliness of nature, with peace, plenty, and love, is surely one of the paradises which Heaven has left for the attainment of man.

How to get to Congress.—The following story is told by the Mobile Tribune of Judge Hawkins, the present representative to Congress from the State of Florida—a man, by the way, brimful of genuine wit. During the war with the Florida Indians he commanded a volunteer company. On one occasion they fell upon a party of the enemy concealed in a swamp. The captain sprang upon a log, (with more valor than discretion,) waved his sword, and cheered his men to the charge. Just then he was shot down. One of his officers ran to ask if he was much hurt. "Not very badly," said Hawkins, "just about enough to send me to Congress!" The prediction has now been verified.

HEAVY FRESHETS IN NORTHERN NEW YORK.—Great damage has been done at various places in the Genesee valley. Numerous culverts on the New York Central Railroad between Rochester and Syracuse had been washed away. The New York and Erie travel was greatly damaged, and all the bridges upon the various streams in that vicinity have been carried away, so that no trains were running in any direction. The water was slowly filling.

THE J-bany Armys says: "The traffic in free negroes, as a political commodity, must soon cease. We expect to announce among the bankruptcies in November, the following: 'Greely & Co.—dealers in human wool—suspended, owing to the short crop, and the fact that the clip now on hand has no sale.'"

FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, Nov. 16.—Advice to the 14th instant from Kansas have been received in this city, which state that the Constitutional Convention had adjourned, after forming a Provisional Government (with Gen. Calhoun as President) to go into operation immediately. A clause sanctioning slavery had been passed.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—The Legislature of Texas have elected J. Pinckney Henderson and J. W. Humphill, United States Senators, to succeed Gen. Houston and Rusk.

THE FIRST SHOOT.—The Columbus Gun was presented, on the 12th inst., with a genuine white shot, being, as it says, of the first of the season.

passed off orderly, the speakers advocating law and order. The issue of small city notes is advocated.

PRIDE may climb high, but its fall will be the greater.

HYMENEAL.

MARRIED, on the 15th inst., by E. Hughes, Esq., Mr. DAVID HANCOCK to Mrs. ELIZABETH GARRISON, all of Pickens.

On the 15th instant, by Rev. D. Hudson, Mr. JOHN NICHOLS to Miss CHARITY WILSON, both of Pickens.

OBITUARY.

DIED, in Pickens district, on the 2d November, 1857, Mrs. MARTHA MCGUFFIN, wife of Rev. A. W. McGuffin, after an illness of a few days. She leaves a husband and eight children, with many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. The deceased was a pious member of the Baptist church for 20 years or more, and she has now gone to rest to join the saints in glory. She has gone the way of all the earth, and let it be an admonition to those who surrounded her in life, to prepare for that upper and better world. Blessed are those who die in the Lord, for they shall inherit eternal life.

Come, little children! think of death, And for the grave prepare; Soon you may all resign your breath, And sleep in silence there.

DIED, in Pickens county, Ga., on the 10th of October last, an infant daughter of Captain John and Mary C. Gougin, aged ten days.—"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Ramsay's History of S. Carolina

WILL be published early in 1858, in two large Volumes octavo, 550 pages each. Volume printed on fine, white paper, bound in substantial cloth gilt. It is not only necessary to add anything to the above. Ramsay's History of South Carolina is a great work. It is an eye-witness, and participated in many of the events about which he writes. We, South Carolinians are too ignorant of our own history, and the Publisher has undertaken the work with a view to supply a demand which has been felt for some time. The fact is, there is more interest felt now in the History of our State, than ever before. All accounts of our ancestors are now beginning to wake up our minds to a lively interest. When we see them braving the hardships of the desert, overcoming every difficulty from a savage foe, and meeting the stalwart Briton in a long, distracting, and bloody war, we are pleased with every danger they escaped, and wish to trace out the most minute events of their history. Those who will subscribe will send on their names to the subscriber early. I intend to get out the work early in 1858. Price, in substantial cloth, $2.25 per Volume; Half-Calf, $3.00. Sold by subscription, payable on delivery. W. J. DUFFIE, Nov. 19, Bookseller, Newberry, S. C.

Contributions. THE following sums have been contributed by the persons named for the benefit of Mrs. Frances Smith, who recently had the misfortune to have her house burned:

J. O'Fringes $7, A. Sharp $2, A. Bryce 50c, S. Brower $1, T. J. Hall $1, H. Bahntge $1, H. Giesel $25, E. Deaton $5, F. Waldfame 25, F. Wilson 25, H. Kne 25, cash 50, F. N. Garvin 50, G. RECIPE for making INK. I will on the receipt of twenty-five cents forward to any person a recipe for making Ink at 7 cents per gallon. It makes a beautiful mark, and is as good or better than the ink that you buy out of the store. There is no humbuggery about it. It will pay a trial. You can buy the recipe and make your own ink. All persons that ever write should have a recipe. They can make 3 gallons with what it would take to buy one little bottle full out of the store! Merchants and all persons who wish to keep ink to sell would do well to send and get a recipe and make their own ink. And, as editors and newspaper publishers make use of a great deal of ink, I make the following proposition to them: That if they will give this notice one insertion, and call the attention of their readers to it, I will send them a recipe. All I ask is to give it a trial, and it will I trust recommend itself. Address

AT PICKENS C. H., S. C.

AND ELEGANT GOODS for the Fall and Winter Trade.

My Goods were purchased by myself in New York, and, in making selections, I exercised all of the care and taste at my command. My Goods were also purchased after the most pressure in New York had caused failures in almost every department of trade, and a consequent reduction in prices, and I think an examination of my Goods will show a corresponding reduction in my rates.

Amongst my Goods may be found almost every variety of DRY GOODS for Ladies' and Gentlemen's WEAR. READY MADE CLOTHING in great variety: BOOTS & SHOES, a good stock for Winter wear:

HATS & CAPS of all styles: Silk and Straw Bonnets, and Trimmings; Fancy Goods and Yankee Notions; Ladies Cloaks and Hoop Skirts; Drugs, Medicines and Dye-Stuffs; Hardware and Cutlery; Saddles & Saddlery
